

You Don't Have To Do Your Summer Assignments

SUMMER 2026
THINK SQUADS
GRADES 8 - 12

Alone

Interactive roundtable collaborations make the work easier, the experience more enjoyable, and the learning deeper. They sharpen communication and build critical thinking.

WHAT IS A THINK SQUAD?

THINK SQUADS are small, in-person groups led by a professional writer, published author, and storyteller — and they're nothing like sitting alone with a textbook or staring at a screen.

Your THINK SQUAD Guide is Richard Squires, MA, MFA, Founder of LifeStory Memoir, where he has written more than 70 memoirs preserving families' most precious histories, and Chief Creative Officer of Narra, a storytelling app that makes capturing and sharing your stories effortless. Richard has spent his career helping people find their voices and tell their stories well — and now he's bringing that expertise to the roundtable.

These are lively, interactive, judgment-free discussions where ideas flow, questions are welcome, and everyone makes each other sharper. You'll understand the material more deeply, remember it longer, and actually enjoy the process.
